White Temple

CHIANGMAI

- Doi Suthep Temple - There are about 300 steps to climb. The reward is more than worth the effort. You will see a beautiful Buddhist Temple and you will experience a beautiful view. While climbing the stairs, you should pay attention to the giant dragons on the sides of the stairs (they appear already downstairs; see the right hand side picture).
- Khantoke Dinner - Enjoy an evening out by having a Khantoke Dinner, the customary northern Thai style of eating with food being served in large platters at low tables while you sit on mats on the floor. As you enjoy your meal, let yourself be entertained by a selection of northern cultural performances including the charming Fon Lep (Thai Finger Dance), Ram Dab (Thai Sword Dance), Fon Thiean (Thai Candle Dance), and Ram Wong (Group Dance).
- San Kham Phang Village(Home Industries) - Known as largest handicraft village in the world. You may get to know more about Thailand product through this village. (Leather Shop, Sweetie Shop, Bird Nest Shop)

CHIANGRAI

- Golden Triangle Region - At the intersection between the Mekong River and Kong River, The gate of the borders in Thailand Burma and Laos.
- Mae Sai - The northernmost town in Thailand it's separated from Burma only by a Bridge. There are many shops selling an assortment of Myanmar goods and souvenirs.
- White Temple - Is different from any other temple in Thailand, designed in white color with some use of white glass.

PHAYAO

- Wat Si Khom Kham - is a Buddhist temple in Phayao town. The temple's wihan hosts a 16 metres high, 14 metres wide Buddha statue in the angular local style of the 15th and 16th centuries. Surrounding the wihan are 38 Buddha heads, some cast in the local Phayao pink sandstone, dating from the 14th century.
- Phayao Lake - Is a lake in the province of Phayao, in the North of Thailand. The shape of the area is a nearly-half-circle-moon shape. Phayao Lake is the largest lake in the North of Thailand and is the fourth largest in the country, with the depth of 1.5 metres, and covers an area of about 1,980 hectares.

LAMPANG

- Lampang City Tour (By Horse-carriage) - By horse car to explore the Lampang city, will passing the clock tower, local market and Pratat Don Tao Temple.
- Wat Phathat Lampang - is one of the best examples of Lanna style architecture in Thailand. Its viharns that are open on all sides are typical of the early Lanna style. Whereas some temples have been restored using modern materials and modern building techniques, the Wat Phra That Lampang Luang has been preserved in its original state.
