CHIANGMAI

- Khun Chang Kien - Khun Chang Kien, or sometimes referred to as Khun Chang Kien Highland Agriculture Research Center, is run by the University of Chiang Mai's Faculty of Agriculture. The planting of the cherry blossom trees was an attempt by the Research Centre to draw more visitors to the area. It has certainly worked – Baan Khun Chang Kien is swarmed with mostly locals and a handful of tourists, and is especially crowded during weekends in January.
- Doi Suthep Temple - There are about 300 steps to climb. The reward is more than worth the effort. You will see a beautiful Buddhist Temple and you will experience a beautiful view. While climbing the stairs, you should pay attention to the giant dragons on the sides of the stairs (they appear already downstairs; see the right hand side picture).
- Khantoke Dinner - Enjoy an evening out by having a Khantoke Dinner, the customary northern Thai style of eating with food being served in large platters at low tables while you sit on mats on the floor. As you enjoy your meal, let yourself be entertained by a selection of northern cultural performances including the charming Fon Lep (Thai Finger Dance), Ram Dab (Thai Sword Dance), Fon Thiean (Thai Candle Dance), and Ram Wong (Group Dance).
- Elephant Safari - Enjoy a elephant show, you can also experience elephant ride, ox cart, and bamboo rafting with professional guide.
- Orchid Butterfly Farm - On display are a profusion of blooms of all varieties, shapes, colours and prices from a few baht for the common trains to a few hundred thousand for the rare and exotic species.
